Attempt to Discredit Tennessee Banks. We find the following paragraph in the Louiswille Courier of Monday. There seems to be a studied effort somewhere to break down Tennessee Banks. All of the Banks mentioned are in a solvent condition. There is no foundation whatever for the Courier's statement.

The Examiner, printed at Gallatin, an independent journal, has probably attained the largest circulation of any country paper in Tennessee. It circulates, we learn, extensively in the counties of Sumner, Smith, Mecon, Jackson, and Overton, and in lower Kentucky. Next spring, it is believed the Louisville and Nashville Kaiiroad will be finished from this place to Gallatin. This will increase the advantages of advertising in the Examiner, but they are already sufficient. Let our merchants avail themselves of them. Tom Boyers, one of the Edi tors, will call upon them to-day.

Miss Eliza Logan returned to Ohio last week from her visit to Dubuque, Iowa, where she successfully launched a new temple of Thespis, playing two weeks to "crowded bouses." After rusticating a few days with her family near Cincinnati, it is her intention to proceed to St. Louis to fill an engagement there. Next spring she contemplates a trip to Europe. May her numerous friends not see her here before she leaves?

Sewing Machines.

One of the most useful inventions of the age is the Sawing Machine. The good it is destined to accomplish may be said to be restricted to no limits; but it will not have entered properly upon its beneficent career, until the reduction of price places it within the means of the poorer classes of society. Numerous attempts have been made to make a machine which shall combine all the good points of the high priced ones, and still be sold, at at a profit, for from ten to fifteen dollars. The Watson Machine is a neat little thing, sewing the common chain stitch, which every one knows who knows anything about sewing, pulls out, and cannot be relied upon for seems. But, manufac turers of high priced machines have attempted to break down the competition of this little machine, ensuing March election. by harrassing the owners of the patent with injunction suits. Not satisfied with immense profits, they would use their goins to crush out all who enter the field to reap with them. One of the injunctions placed upon the Watson Machine in New York was dissolved on the 16th inst, by the U. States Circuit Court, Judge Narson, presiding .-But, if all injunctions be dissolved, the machine cannot get into general use. The stitol, will not answer. Another low price muchine, Pratt's, is coming into notice. This is said for $40; but it will not do except for light fabrics, such as calicoes and the like; and even on these, the stitch is itregular. So this machine will not do any better than Watson's. There is still another machine -a later invention patented in May last, by Mr. B. At- | Books, Note B oks, Cap and Letter Paper and Envelopes, water. This machine is manufactured at Buffalo, New York, by H. C. Burtman & Co. It is the sim- tions, Magazines, Newspapers, etc., etc. pleat of all machines of the kind, having neither looper, hook, shuttle, spring nor cam, to get out others are invited to call and examine for themselves. of order, the raising and lowering of the needle being by a simple crank motion transmitted from a straight shaft. The loop in the thread is formed by a new and exceedingly simple process. Unlike every other machine, it can laugh in the face of all ir junction suits, and dely all the capital of all the cautay, contains Lives and Sketches, of some of the most monopolists. This machine will soon be offered for distinguished men, as will be seen by a perusal of the list sale, at the low price of fifteen dellars. In a cir- of names. Affor the above property is located in thriving portions

Lying in the county of Warren, immediately on the Stage Road leading from Murfreesboro to McMinnville, 9 miles from the latter place, and within 7 miles of the Manchester and McMinnville Railroad. ON TUESDAY, OCTOBER 27th, 1857, about 7000 Acres of excellent lands in Warren county. They are gently unfulating, and the portions not cleared studded with fine oak, poplar, bickory, walnut, and other e-criptions of timber, producing mast in abundance.— harley's creek, an unfailing stream, furnishing an abuncharge's creek, an untaining stream, turnshing an abundance of water, runs through the centre of them, and there are, in addition, twenty fine Springs scattered through them. The soil is well adapted to the cultivation of Corn, Wheat, Gats, all the small grains, and domestic grasses, and will compare favorably with the best Warren county lands. Producing grass spontaneously, in abunance, there is no better range for cattle and sheep in the state. A portion of the lands are improved, there being me eight or ten cultivated farms, with cottages, upon the tract, independent of the beautiful residence of Mr. Glas-rock. The whole body of them has, however, been recently surveyed and said off in small tracts, containing from 100 to 500 scres, and fronting on a public road. In point of society the location has many advantages nurches, schools, and mills are convenient, and the Man-nester and McMinnville Railroad, which is but seven tiles distant, affores an outlet to market. The town of McMinwille, the county seat, is but nine miles off, near which it is believed the great Southern University, to be established under the auspices of the Episcopal church, will be located; thus enhancing the value of all the lands in the neighborhood. The celebrated watering place, Beersheba, is but 25 miles distant. The healthfulness of this portion of Middle Tennessee is proverbial, it is the Summer retreat of numbers of persons from the South. This sale will alord an unusually fine opportunity to those desirous of purchasing stock farms, in one of the best sections of the State, and it is hoped that all such, as well as those who may with merely to obtain a place of refuge from the heats of summer, will examine these A free Barbecus will be prepared at the Big Spring, head of Charley's Creek, for the accommodation of all who TERMS OF SALE .- One, two, and three years credit, for notes with approved security, and a lieu retained.
